MRS. ZETTA SYBRANDT

We, the Class of 1954, with sincere appreciation dedicate our annual to a former faculty member, Mrs. Zetta Sybrandt. We always found her ready to help students with their problems which arose from day to day. Mrs. Sybrandt, along with our other teacher, has left us with many pleasant memories of our school days.

Class Prophecy

I pulled into Spencer the other day for the first time since graduating. I naturally was interested in what had happened to my old classmates. Then glancing around, I saw Carol Williams coming down the street chattering like a magpie about how she was going to furnish her new house-trailer. In all my years of coaching girls' basketball, I have never seen anyone so upset. While I calmed her down, I was able to learn what had happened to the good old Class of '54.

Barbara Wolf is the wife of Donald Billman and is acting as his private secretary.

Karen Auble is raising beef cattle while her husband is flying jets.

Mari Allemang is the first lady pro football player, and she is playing with the Cleveland Browns.

Donald Billman is married and running a speed and body shop in Spencer while studying to be a space pilot.

Pat Gallatin is now playing donkey basketball and has received an offer from the Globe Trotters.

Leonard Hall is a television detective on "Hall's Hall of Horror."

Francis Lowery works for Don Billman in Spencer and dreams about customizing his own rod.

Naomi Thompson is the wife of an enterprising young business man in Galion, Ohio.

Marlene White is testing non-sag mattresses in a New York department store window.

Mary Wilch is the wife of an up-and-coming engineer.

Donald Dawley is teaching. He now has a beautiful wife, 5'3" tall, 121 pounds, brown eyes, and brown hair. It seems all the time he spent around Elyria paid off.

Class Will

I, Don Dawley, being of sound mind, leave my shyness and ability to stay untied [?] to Orman McVicker, who has a need for it.

I, Mary Wilch, leave the teachers in peace, but not for long because Mary Ann and Donna Rae are coming!

I, Naomi Thompson, will my size to one who needs it, Barbara Lepka.

I, Marleve White, will my ability to get up on time in the morning to one who needs it, my sister, Ann.

I, Leonard Hall, being of sound mind do herewith will my ability to keep away from girls to one who needs it, Joe McReynolds.

I, Karen Auble, will my heifer to Marla Knepper, who is looking forward to becoming a farmer's wife.

I, Donald Billman, will my long legs and slender figure to one who can use them, Jim Dennison.

I, Carol Williams, leave my ability to get to school before the morning tardy bell rings to someone in need of it, Janet Leiby.

I, Barbara Wolf, will my 27-inch waistline to my sister, Bernita, who hasn't found hers.

I, Carl Galt, leave my ability to get to school on time to one who has a good start, Ronald Larkey.

I, Francis Lowery, leave my ability to study my English in Miss Swisher's study hall to one who needs it, Allen Weidrick.

I, Pat Gallatin, leave my ability to play basketball to next year's varsity basketball team.

I, Mari Allemang, leave my perfect attendance to someone who has a good start, Joe McReynolds.

To the juniors, we leave the rest of the pink paper for surprise government tests.

To the sophomores, we leave you the juniors with whom you will probably have many battles.

To the freshmen, we leave our ability to leave everything undone till the last minute and then get it done.

To the eighth grade, we leave our sweet [?] dispositions.

To the seventh grade, we leave our hopes that the new addition will be completed by the time you are seniors.

To the teachers, we leave.

Senior Class History

In September 1942, twenty-one eager first graders started to Spencer School. Of this class there are nine that have continued through the grades and are now in the graduating class of '54. They are Karen Auble, Donald Billman, Patricia Gallatin, Leonard Hall, Francis Lowery, Naomi Thompson, Marlene White, Carol Williams, and Barbara Wolf.

As we entered our freshman year we found that we had acquired Mari Allemang and Ruth Staley.

During that year, we ordered our school jackets and found it a privilege to be able to choose our own subjects and enter school activities. Mr. Walrath, our class advisor, helped us get a start in building up our treasury.

In the beginning of our sophomore year, we had eighteen members. The only new class member was Mary Wilch.

The big event of the year was the "Sugar Stir" at Packard's Sugar Bush in March. Our advisor was Mr. Dawley.

Our junior year finally arrived. Mrs. Dawley helped lead us through a very successful year. On October 10, we ordered our class rings from Herff-Jones Company. They finally arrived early in January, and how proud we were to wear them! During the basketball season, we sold refreshments at all home games, which added very much to our treasury. Our junior play was presented on March 20, under the direction of Mrs. Dawley. The name of it was, "That's Our Boy." Needless to say it was a huge success! In May we had a very profitable paper drive. On May 15, the junior-senior banquet was given in honor of the seniors at Oberlin Inn. Afterwards many went to the Palace in Cleveland for entertainment.

After many hard years of slaving, we are now SENIORS! Our class is composed of the "lucky thirteen." Our advisor is Mr. Florence. Our class play, "Watch Out For Spooks," was given none other than on Friday the 13th of November. Mrs. Wolff, the director, helped us make the comedy a success. Also, in November, we made a half-day trip to Liberty Studio in Wooster, to have our senior pictures taken. We received them early in December. On March 5, we had a Chili Supper, and from all reports it was a very delicious supper. We had our paper drive in May. The last event, and one of the greatest, was the junior-senior banquet on April 24, in our honor by the juniors. We will remember it always, especially, since they had the bill to pay.

With our hard-earned money, we took a very interesting and enjoyable trip to Washington, D.C., bringing our school years to a very happy close.

Our Commencement was held at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium on May 28.

Some of the members of our class entered in the following activities: F.T.A., Y-Teens, Hi-Y, boys' and girls' ensembles, and band.

This about completes our junior year with the exception of our paper drive, during which we had a flat and ruined one of Mr. Coe's truck tires.

Our last activity of the year was to give the seniors the long-looked-forward-to banquet, which everyone enjoyed.

A last parting wish: Good luck, Seniors!

Sophomore Class History

In 1944, a gang of rough-and-ready little monsters barged into the first grade room ready to tackle their teacher, Mrs. Clarabelle Pitz. We were helped along by more teachers than we can count. In six years, they tamed us down [?]. Then we entered junior high. While we were there, we had a winning basketball team.

We were proud to have many boys on the varsity and reserve basketball teams and two cheerleaders from the Class of '56.

Our class officers were: President, Philip Firestone; Vice President, Sandy Breyley; Secretary-Treasurer, Ann White; Board of Control, Allen Weidrick; News Reporter, Jim Giar; Recreation, Frances Beach and Larry Nixon. Mr. Seiple was our class advisor.

During the basketball season, Loren Mantz and Butch Boone played on the reserve team, and Beverly Rowe was a reserve cheerleader.

We started the year by electing class officers. They are as follows: President, Larry Clifford; Vice-President, Alex Moran; Secretary, Beverly Heilman; Treasurer, Jayne Rook; Board of Control, Ronnie Walters.

Several of the eighth grade boys played on the junior high basketball team. They are as follows: Jay Miller, Ronnie Walters, Raymond Kozub, Donald Brouse, Arthur Walkden, Alex Moran, Phillip White, Kieth Pervier, and Jerry Vermilye. The junior high cheerleaders were Mary Ann Giar, Donna Rae Rook, and Ann Stuart. The team made a good start by winning over Litchfield, 37-32. The next game was played here, and we won over Chatham, 50-39. The third game was played at Homer. We lost 39-35.

We had a Christmas party December 17, 1953. It was a lot of fun.

Seventh Grade History

There are only sixteen of the original twenty-nine members of our class with whom we started to school.

During our first six years, we lost thirteen out of the twenty-nine, but we gained Billy Knepper, Cathleen Dewar, Loretta Boreman, Faye Riffle, and Jon Herte.

This year we lost four, but we gained Mae Waltz, George Nash, Donna Bracken, Billy Dobson, Tommy Bolling, Clinton Sprinkle, Richard Van Kirk, and Merril Bolling.

Write-Up

The varsity had a record of three wins in twenty-two starts during the regular season. We drew Brunswick in the tournament, but we were hopelessly outplayed. In the second game of the tournament, we played Buckeye, but we were beaten again. Better luck next year.

The reserves had a very poor season. They won only one game in twenty-two starts.

The junior high did well under the coaching of Mr. Seiple. In seven starts we won six games. They were defeated only by Homer. Nice going, boys.
